ILLINOIS
Part no. 91IL
In 1858, the Lincoln-Douglas debates identified how the issue of slavery was dividing the nation. Had they made their train connection in Chicago both would have had lunch here.

IOWA
Part no 91 IO
In the 1880's Iowa's farmers began raising hogs on home grown corn, forever changing the state's economy. So while eating here, please don't make a pig of yourself.

KANSAS
Part no. 91 KS
In the 1860's Bat Masterson and Wyatt Earp cleaned up the lawlessness in Dodge City and Abilene. Here you are more than welcome to clean up the kitchen.

KENTUCKY
Part no. 91KY
In 1875, the first Kentucky Derby was run at Louisville, beginning a great tradition in American sports. At this "Old Kentucky Home" horses must wipe their feet before entering.

LOUISIANA
Part no. 91 LA
In 1803 Napoleon sold the entire Louisiana Territory for $15 million to the United States. That was a much better deal than we got on this property.

MASSACHUSETTS
Part no. 912 ME
On April 18, 1775 Paul Revere made his famous ride to warn his fellow Patriots that the British were coming. Unlike here, we have no warning when visitors are coming.

MICHIGAN
Part no. 91 MI
On 1893 Henry Ford appeared in America's first practical automobile. If this building was here, Mr. Ford could have blocked the driveway and gotten America's first parking ticket.

MINNESOTA
Part no. 91 MN
In 1889, the Mayo Clinic, one of the world's leading medical centers, was established in Minnesota. If this building had been here, they still would have made a house call.

MISSISSIPPI V1
Part no. 91 MS
In 1894, in Vicksburg, Joseph Biedenharn, a candy store owner, first bottled Coca-Cola. If we had been here then we could have bought a six-pack.
